Our name truly stands for Common Sense Lending.

These distinct CSL advantages include:

- Flexible, custom-tailored loan programs for most borrowers
- Simple pre-qualification and application process to make loan responses quick and easy
- Individualized underwriting to help us better understand each credit profile and get to know every customer's personal story
- In house loan origination, funding and servicing, with one company managing the entire relationship from start to finish
- Highly experienced and licensed underwriters, with an average of 10+ years in lending, to take retailers and home buyers through every step of the home purchase process

This is not a commitment to lend or extend credit, and terms may change without notice. Promotion assumes seller-paid points of 1% of the amount financed. No interest accrues on the borrower's loan for up to 61 days, and the first monthly payment will not be due for up to 90 days after funding of the borrower's loan. For example, if the loan for the home is funded on April 15th, interest on the loan accrues beginning on June 1st, and the borrower's first monthly payment will be due on July 1st. This is an advertisement for a mortgage product with limited availability, which may not be available in all areas, and which is subject to final underwriting approval by CSL Financial, LLC.
